

Policy & Preparation: Amending to Revise Filing Status

Background

Taxpayers can file amendments to change their filing status within time constraints and under limited circumstances. In addition to the IRS rules, Foundation Communities has policies that limit preparation of amendments that revise filing status.

Filing Status Change	Will Foundation Communities prepare this amendment?	Can the amendment be efiled?
MFJ to MFS Taxpayers have only until the original deadline of that tax year to amend or change the status to Married Filing Separately. Exception: A court-appointed personal representative may revoke an election to file a joint return previously filed by the surviving spouse alone. This is done by filing a separate return for the decedent within 1 year from the due date of the return (including any extensions). The joint return made by the surviving spouse will then be regarded as the separate return of that spouse by excluding the decedent's items and refiguring the tax liability.	No. Foundation Communities will not prepare an amendment that revises filing status from MFJ to MFS.
