

Texas RioGrande Legal Aid
TEXAS
TAXPAYER
ASSISTANCE
PROJECT

IRS issues can be complicated.

We're here to help.

It is hard to understand many of the tax laws– and some change year-to-year. If you have a problem with the IRS or your refund has been withheld, you might need legal help. The Texas Taxpayer Assistance Project (TTAP) provides outreach presentations to educate taxpayers on how to avoid common tax mistakes and their rights when dealing with the IRS.

Seek help with or learn more about:

- ▶ Representation in tax court
- ▶ IRS audits or exams
- ▶ Earned income tax credit
- ▶ Child tax credit
- ▶ Recovery rebate credit/stimulus payments
- ▶ Injured spouse claims
- ▶ Tax liens & levies
- ▶ Settling tax debts
- ▶ Joint tax debt relief
- ▶ Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)
- ▶ Employee or independent contractor disputes
- ▶ and more!

To apply for free legal help with tax questions or problems with the IRS, call:

(956) 996-8752
(833) 329-8752 toll-free

We do not prepare current year tax returns. Services are free and all conversations are confidential. Eligibility guidelines apply.

To get more information or request a presentation for your group, call:

(210) 212-3747

Presentations are available via video conferencing.

TTAP is a Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic housed within Texas RioGrande Legal Aid (TRLA). TRLA provides free legal services to people facing various civil matters including but not limited to public benefits, evictions, wills & estates, changing your gender marker, alternatives to guardianship, domestic violence, and child custody. The Texas Access to Justice Hotline (TAJ) is available to help you apply for services. Call (956) 996-8752 or (833) 329-8752 M–F between 9:00 am & 5:00 pm. State and federal eligibility guidelines apply.

Texas RioGrande Legal Aid
TEXAS
TAXPAYER
ASSISTANCE
PROJECT

IRS issues can be complicated.

We're here to help.

It is hard to understand many of the tax laws– and some change year-to-year. If you have a problem with the IRS or your refund has been withheld, you might need legal help. The Texas Taxpayer Assistance Project (TTAP) provides outreach presentations to educate taxpayers on how to avoid common tax mistakes and their rights when dealing with the IRS.

Seek help with or learn more about:

- ▶ Representation in tax court
- ▶ IRS audits or exams
- ▶ Earned income tax credit
- ▶ Child tax credit
- ▶ Recovery rebate credit/stimulus payments
- ▶ Injured spouse claims
- ▶ Tax liens & levies
- ▶ Settling tax debts
- ▶ Joint tax debt relief
- ▶ Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)
- ▶ Employee or independent contractor disputes
- ▶ and more!

To apply for free legal help with tax questions or problems with the IRS, call:

(956) 996-8752
(833) 329-8752 toll-free

We do not prepare current year tax returns. Services are free and all conversations are confidential. Eligibility guidelines apply.

To get more information or request a presentation for your group, call:

(210) 212-3747

Presentations are available via video conferencing.

TTAP is a Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic housed within Texas RioGrande Legal Aid (TRLA). TRLA provides free legal services to people facing various civil matters including but not limited to public benefits, evictions, wills & estates, changing your gender marker, alternatives to guardianship, domestic violence, and child custody. The Texas Access to Justice Hotline (TAJ) is available to help you apply for services. Call (956) 996-8752 or (833) 329-8752 M–F between 9:00 am & 5:00 pm. State and federal eligibility guidelines apply.