

Need to make a payment?

The IRS offers several options:

- Electronic Funds Withdrawal. Pay using your bank account when you e-file your return.
- Direct Pay. This electronic option (accessible via www.irs.gov) allows you to schedule payments online from your checking or savings account with no additional fee and with immediate payment confirmation. This option is available only to those with a valid Social Security Number.
- Credit or debit cards. Pay your taxes by debit or credit card online (at www.irs.gov), by phone (at 800-829-1040), or with a mobile device. The IRS does charge a fee for using a credit or debit card.
- Mail in a payment. See the other side of this sheet for instructions.
- In person by appointment. You may personally deliver your payment to the IRS walk-in office located at 825 East Rundberg, which is open 8:30 am to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday. You must have an appointment in order to make a payment. Schedule an appointment by calling 1-844-545-5640. The walk-in office accepts checks, money orders, and cash payments (exact change required).
- Pay with cash. You can make a cash payment at a participating retail partner. See separate handout that outlines the steps to take to make a cash payment.
- Installment agreement. You may be able to make monthly payments, but you must file all required tax returns first. However, most include a fee to set up the plan. You can apply online, by mail (using Form 9465), or by phone (at 800-829-1040). There are three options for installment agreements:
 - a. Full payment now, meaning within 10 days -- no user fee
 - b. Short-term extension to pay: full payment within four months -- no user fee
 - c. Monthly payments: the most costly option considering penalties and interest plus a user fee of
 - $149-$225 for a standard payment agreement (or $43 if you meet low-income guidelines)
 - $31-$107 for a direct debit payment agreement (or $0 if you meet low-income guidelines)
