

Policy & Preparation: MFJ with Deceased Spouse

If one spouse of a taxpayer couple who will file Married Filing Jointly (MFJ) died during the tax year and the surviving spouse did not remarry, the Tax Help Program can prepare the tax return.

The surviving spouse must present the following at Intake:

- a death certificate for the spouse
- the ID and proof of SSN for both the deceased and surviving spouses

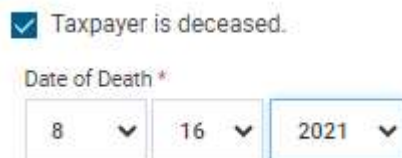

If the tax return is for a deceased taxpayer and someone other than the surviving spouse wants to prepare a tax return for a deceased taxpayer, refer to Policy & Preparation: Court-Appointed Representative or Executor for Deceased Taxpayer.

Note: A surviving spouse who is caring for dependent children may be eligible to file using Qualifying Surviving Spouse (QSS) status for up to two years following the death of their spouse. See Understanding Qualifying Surviving Spouse \(QSS\) Status for the conditions and benefits of doing so.

How to Assist the Taxpayer

Start a new Married Filing Jointly (MFJ) return in TaxSlayer.

1. Navigate to Basic Information→Personal Information.
2. Enter information for the primary and secondary taxpayers.
3. For the deceased spouse, be sure to check Taxpayer is deceased and enter the date of death from the death certificate.

Taxpayer is deceased.

4. Prepare the return as usual.
5. To determine the Return Type, see below.

Can the Return be E-Filed?

- ▶ The tax return can be e-filed if all of these conditions are met:
- a death certificate is provided; and
 - the date of death is not greater than 6 months prior to return preparation (and date of presumed efile); and
 - a refund is due to the taxpayer; and
 - there is no other circumstance that prevents e-filing; and
 - a copy of the death certificate is kept in the Processing Envelope.

If any of these conditions are not met, the return must be Paper.

Important! Explain to the client that the IRS may reject the return if the SSN of the deceased has been “locked”. If the client wishes to proceed with e-filing, follow the steps for e-filing below. If the client wishes to proceed with a Paper return, follow the steps for a Paper return below

- ▶ For e-filing, follow these steps:
- Make a note in TaxSlayer that one taxpayer spouse is deceased and the return was prepared with the death certificate.
 - Set the Return Type to E-file in TaxSlayer.
 - Ask the surviving spouse to sign Form 8879 for themselves and then for the deceased spouse as follows: (Deceased Spouse Name) by (surviving spouse name) filing as surviving spouse
 - Prepare two (2) printed copies of the complete tax return:
 - one copy that is ready to mail with all required tax documents attached (do not include the death certificate); and

- one copy for the client's records.
- Instruct the client not to mail the tax return to the IRS unless they receive a call from the Tax Help Program instructing them to do so because the e-filed tax return has been rejected.
- Place a copy of the death certificate in the Processing Envelope.

► For a Paper return, follow these steps:

- Make a note in TaxSlayer that one taxpayer spouse is deceased and the return was prepared with the death certificate.
- Set the Return Type to Paper in TaxSlayer.
- Prepare two (2) printed copies of the complete tax return:
 - one copy that is ready to mail with all required tax documents attached (do not include the death certificate); and
 - one copy for the client's records.
- Ask the surviving spouse to sign the printed tax return to be mailed for themselves and then for the deceased spouse as follows: (Deceased Spouse Name) by (surviving spouse name) filing as surviving spouse
- Instruct the taxpayer to mail the tax return to the IRS.
- Place a copy of the death certificate in the Processing Envelope.
